

Our Gift Shop, Discovered Traditions, has a selection of Sacred Texts from the Torah to the Mishkan T'filah for lifelong study and learning, as well as children's books for every season and lifecycle event.

Give the gift of learning today!

All profits from the Discovered Traditions Gift Shop are used to support the Religious School and children of Temple Beth El.

FALL 2018

TEMPLE
BETH EL

Worship and Adult Learning

*"The world stands on three things:
learning, prayer, and deeds"*
Pirkei Avot 1:2

5101 Providence Road, Charlotte, NC 28226
704.366.1948 | www.templebethel.org

SHABBAT WORSHIP

Shabbat worship is the highlight of our week, when music lifts our souls and meditative moments bring us to a sense of mindful awareness.

FIRST FRIDAYS

- 5:15 pm Preneg – Food and drinks to welcome Shabbat
- 5:30 pm SongFest – Shabbat songs for families with young children
- 6:00 pm Shabbat Evening Service for Families with School-age Children
– An interactive and engaging service
- 8:00 pm Shabbat Evening Service – A contemplative service
followed by an oneg

ALL OTHER FRIDAYS

- 5:45 pm Preneg
- 6:30 pm Shabbat Evening Service – A contemplative service

SATURDAY MORNING

- 9:30 am Torah Study – Read and discuss the week's Torah portion with our clergy and lay leaders in the Polsky Beit Midrash
- 11:00am Shabbat Morning Service – On most Saturdays, our B'nei Mitzvah lead our community in prayer, music, and learning in the Blumenthal Sanctuary. On other Saturdays, we hold services in the Archer Chapel.
- 9:00 am Tot Shabbat (once a month) – Singing, dancing, and praying for children under 6, their siblings and grownups. Our musical and upbeat Shabbat service is followed by a yummy snack and a special craft. (October 13, November 10, December 15, January 12, February 16, March 16, April 13, May 18)

Service times are subject to change for holidays or special events. Please refer to our online calendar each week for updated times.

Live streaming is available for worship services held in the Blumenthal Sanctuary thanks to the generosity of Lee and Jane Diamond.

Find the live streaming link at the top of our website www.templebethel.org and in our weekly e-news.

Same Stories, Different Texts: The Hebrew Bible and The Koran with Temple Beth El's Rabbi Emerita, Rabbi Judy Schindler Sklut Professor of Jewish Studies, in partnership with Arzu Kaya-Uranli
8 Wednesday afternoons, February 6, 2019 through April 10, 2019 (No class on March 20 and April 3)

12:15 pm - 1:45 pm at Queens University
Registration and $150 Fee through Queens University, Stan Greenspon Center for Peace and Social Justice

In this city of Charlotte with almost 1000 places of worship, we are surrounded by neighbors who hold in their hands a variety of sacred scriptures. In this course, we will compare and contrast the portrayal of personalities and pertinent topics in the Hebrew Bible and the Koran from Abraham to Moses, from fast to feasts, from prayer to prophecy.

Arzu Kaya-Uranli is a broadcaster, religious studies professor and interfaith activist. She received her M.A. in Religious Studies from Hartford University and is an adjunct professor at Winthrop University.

Southern Jewish Roots: A Four Week Tour of Jewish Charlotte
Roz Cooper, Susan Jacobs, and Sue Littauer

Four evenings in the Spring
Registration and Fee

Participants will enjoy a unique hike through history from touring the Hebrew Cemetery that was founded in 1867 and is rich with stories of the famous Jews who were buried there from the Civil War to the Civil Rights era to today, to learning about kashrut and tasting Jewish classics at Gleiberman's. Participants will explore the pluralistic and powerful community that thrives today as they learn about the uniqueness of Shalom Park and its development and glean wisdom from local leaders of the various movements and synagogues. Learn about the three mikvahs (ritual baths) that have homes in Charlotte, the three swimming pools (some even holding a Jewish star of David at the bottom), and commemorate Holocaust memory as you learn about the more than three dozen Charlotte survivors as we reflect at the Margaret and Lou Schwartz Butterfly Garden Holocaust Memorial.

Roz Cooper, Susan Jacobs and Sue Littauer are all esteemed Jewish Charlotte educators who have been at the helm of our Charlotte religious educational institutions for decades.

Find these adult learning opportunities and more on our website calendar: www.templebethel.org

Same Stories, Different Texts: The Hebrew Bible and the New Testament with Temple Beth El's Rabbi Emerita, Rabbi Judy Schindler, Sklut Professor of Jewish Studies, in partnership with Dr. Nancy Ellett Allison

8 Wednesday afternoons, October 3, 2018 through December 5, 2018 (No class on October 10 and November 21)

12:15 pm - 1:45 pm at Queens University, Sykes 322

Registration and $150 Fee through Queens University, Stan Greenspon Center for Peace and Social Justice

In our city of Charlotte with its 960 churches, we are surrounded by neighbors who, alone or with a group, explore the Bible and its teachings in various ways. During this course, we will compare and contrast the portrayal of personalities and pertinent topics in the Hebrew Bible and in the New Testament from Abraham to the afterlife, from covenant to commandments, from the messiah to miracles.

The Reverend Dr. Nancy Ellett Allison is Senior Minister of Holy Covenant UCC in Charlotte. She earned her BA from Baylor University and her MDiv and PhD from Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in Fort Worth. A popular speaker, preacher and retreat leader, Nancy has written and edited for several publications, and served as Secretary of the Southern Conference of the UCC and a member of the board of directors.

Protective Custody PRISONER: 34042

Original Play on the Life of Dr. Susan Cernyak-Spatz

Thursday, December 13, 2018

7:00 pm at Queens University, Belk Chapel

Free and open to the public

Join us to celebrate the second anniversary of the Stan Greenspon Center with a reading of an original play written by Charles LaBorde, directed by Dennis Delamar, performed and produced by Three Bone Theatre – all luminaries of the Charlotte theater community. The script, adapted from Dr. Susan Cernyak-Spatz's autobiography Protective Custody PRISONER: 34042, captures riveting experiences of her Auschwitz-Birkenau internment as well as the eventual liberation of this well-known Charlotte Holocaust survivor. The evening will celebrate all of our Charlotte community's more than three dozen Holocaust survivors and the successes of the Greenspon Center's first two years. Please join us for refreshments following the reading.

ADULT LEARNING

In Pirkei Avot, the rabbis give this advice for learning – “Turn it, and turn it, for everything is in it. Reflect on it and grow old and gray with it. Don't turn from it, for nothing is better than it.” Join us as we uncover the richness of our tradition, turning it and exploring it as we discover new wisdom for our generation.

Register for programs on the Temple Beth El calendar: <https://tbe.shulcloud.com/calendar> unless otherwise noted.

The Open Door: Introductory courses and content

The Classroom: Opportunities to learn with TBE clergy and community teachers

Town Hall: Large community-wide learning opportunities

Learning with Temple Beth El's Rabbi Emerita, Rabbi Judy Schindler, and the Stan Greenspon Center for Peace and Social Justice

THE OPEN DOOR: INTRODUCTORY COURSES AND CONTENT

- Elements of Judaism
- Choosing Judaism
- Hands on Judaism
- Learn to Read Hebrew
- Big Jewish Ideas – God, Torah, and Israel

Elements of Judaism with Betsy Olinger and Sara Bryan

There are 2 opportunities to take this class:

7 Tuesday Evenings, October 9, 2018 through November 27, 2018 (No class on November 20)

7 Tuesday Evenings, January 8, 2019 through February 19, 2019

7:30 pm – 9:00 pm at Temple Beth El

Registration and $50 Fee (+$30 cost for book)

Elements of Judaism is an introductory course to Jewish thought, belief, and practice. Get a high level view of what Jewish people believe and how these beliefs are expressed in daily life. Elements of Judaism is designed for anyone who wants to reinforce or establish a foundation in understanding Judaism. Do you want to brush up on your basic knowledge? Are you part of an interfaith family? Are you considering conversion to Judaism? Just curious? This is the course for you.

For those interested in exploring conversion to Judaism, Elements of Judaism is intended to be your first step. Register for Elements, attend class, get a greater sense of who we are as a people and as a specific Temple Beth El community. After Elements of Judaism, you will continue on to our second course, Choosing Judaism.

Choosing Judaism

Tuesday Evenings, March 19, 2019 through May 7, 2019 (No class April 16)

7:30 pm – 9:00 pm at Temple Beth El

Registration and Fee (through Clergy Assistant)

Choosing Judaism is Temple Beth El's conversion course. Learners typically enroll in our basic Judaism course, Elements of Judaism, and then move on to Choosing Judaism.

Hands on Judaism

3 Tuesday Evenings, May 14, 21, 28, 2019

7:00 pm – 8:30 pm at Temple Beth El

Registration and Fee

Taught by Susan Jacobs, Director of Education, this class is an opportunity to learn creative and practical ways to make Judaism come alive in your home. Home rituals do not need to be overwhelming or time-consuming. They should inspire you and help bring joy to your life.

Learn to Read Hebrew

11 Wednesday Evenings November 7, 2018 through February 27, 2019 (No class November 14, 21, December 26, January 2, 23, February 20)

7:00 pm – 8:00 pm at Temple Beth El

Registration and Fee

Learning to Read Hebrew is a great way to become more connected to services and prayers. Temple Beth El is offering a thorough beginning Hebrew class that will give you the opportunity to learn to decode and read Hebrew. Members and non-members are all welcome.

Big Jewish Ideas – God, Torah, and Israel

3 Monday evenings

7:00 pm – 8:30 pm at Temple Beth El

Free and Open to the Community

Join Rabbi Knight on as we explore the ideas of God, Torah and Israel – three of the Big Jewish Ideas that have shaped and informed our faith and tradition. All texts and materials will be provided.

- God - The Diversity and Dimensions of God (April 22, 2019)
- Torah – Joining the Millennia of Jewish Conversation (May 20, 2019)
- Israel – The Role of Land and the Covenant of Israel (June 17, 2019)

LEARNING WITH TEMPLE BETH EL'S RABBI EMERITA, RABBI JUDY SCHINDLER, AND THE STAN GREENSPON CENTER FOR PEACE AND SOCIAL JUSTICE

- Sklut Lecture
- Same Stories, Different Texts: The Hebrew Bible and the New Testament
- Original Play on the Life of Dr. Susan Cernyak-Spatz
- Same Stories, Different Texts: The Hebrew Bible and The Koran
- Southern Jewish Roots: A Four Week Tour of Jewish Charlotte

For more information or to register, please visit: <http://www.stangreensponcenter.org/events/>. For questions, please email Goldmant@queens.edu.

Sklut Lecture: #MeToo: Sexual Misconduct in the Hebrew Bible with Temple Beth El's Rabbi Emerita, Rabbi Judy Schindler, Sklut Professor of Jewish Studies

September 26, 2018

5:00 pm - 6:30 pm at Duke Energy Auditorium,

Rogers Hall at Queens University

Free and open to the public

Today, more than ever, we are aware of women's struggles to be heard, to be safe, to be free from objectification and sexualization. The #MeToo Movement has brought to light just how widespread and systematic sexual misconduct has been for women not only today but throughout history.

Rabbi Schindler will examine women's voices – both silenced and amplified – in the Hebrew Bible and in Rabbinic texts. In so doing, she hopes to empower women of today, and the men who stand by them, to find themselves in our texts and be co-creators of a reality where equality and safety are protected and valued. This lecture is in honor of Lori and Eric Sklut who have generously established the Sklut Professorship of Jewish Studies at Queens.

Doors open at 5:00 pm for reception, 5:30 pm - 6:30 pm lecture

Comparative Religion

6 Tuesday Evenings beginning January 29, 2019

7:00 pm – 9:00 pm at Temple Beth El

Free and open to the public

Spirituality: How Do You Connect With Your Higher Power
The 2019 Comparative Religion series will explore Spirituality: How Do You Connect with Your Higher Power? Leaders of different belief communities will share how prayer, meditation, ritual, music, and other modalities help people to connect with deeper meaning in their lives or relate to a Higher Power. The speakers (to be announced) will share the spiritual practices that are most personally meaningful and explain how spiritual practices, liturgy, and traditions developed in their community.

- Week 1: Spirituality and Higher Power with Rabbi Asher Knight (January 29, 2019)
- Week 2: Blessing, Praising, Thanksgiving, Petition and Intercession (February 5, 2019)
- Week 3: Liturgy – Fixed Liturgy and Personal Prayers (February 12, 2019)
- Week 4: Meditation, Mantra, and Mindfulness (February 19, 2019)
- Week 5: Movement and Spiritual Exercise (February 26, 2019)
- Week 6: Doubtters and Seekers as Spiritual Expression (March 5, 2019)
- Snow Date: (March 12, 2019)

Shavuot – The Sinai Scoop – Celebrating Women’s Voices

Rabbi Dusty Klass and Cantor Mary Rebecca Thomas

June 8, 2019

7:30 pm at Temple Beth El

Celebrate an evening of spiritual audacity, learning, and prayer as we explore the role of women throughout the Jewish experience. This holiday celebration is open to all teens and adults, as we rejoice, together. We will also celebrate the first year of Temple Beth El’s small groups, our TriBEs. Join Rabbi Dusty Klass and Cantor Mary Rebecca Thomas as we enjoy sweet dairy treats and non-dairy scoops, too!

THE CLASSROOM: OPPORTUNITIES TO LEARN WITH TBE CLERGY AND COMMUNITY TEACHERS

- Torah Study
- Uptown Study
- SouthPark Study
- Temple Beth El Book Club
- SPICE Senior Programs of Interest, Concern, and Engagement
- Questions of Faith
- Sage: Seeking Jewish Wisdom
- The Art of Jewish Prayer
- The Art of Chanting Torah

Torah Study with Clergy

Saturday Mornings

9:30 am – 10:30 am at Temple Beth El

Each Shabbat morning, we gather to read and discuss the week’s Torah portion. Our Torah study is warm, open to all, and led by Temple clergy and lay leaders. No prior experience with Torah learning is necessary; just come as you are, with an open mind!

Uptown Study with Rabbi Dusty Klass

First Wednesdays of each month

12:00 pm – 1:15 pm at Amelie’s French Bakery & Café, Uptown

Join Rabbi Dusty Klass for lunch and learning. Together we will study ancient Jewish texts and the ways in which they intersect with and deepen our understanding of our world today. Expect lively conversation, lots of laughter, and the opportunity to grapple with tough topics. No experience necessary - in fact, you may leave with more questions than answers, and that is the beauty of Jewish text study! Join at any time. No reservations necessary.

SouthPark Study with Kent Novell

Fourth Mondays of each month

12:00 pm – 1:15 pm at The Palm, SouthPark

Join Kent Novell for lunch and learning. Together we will study Jewish texts and the ways in which they intersect with and deepen our understanding of our world today. Expect lively conversation, friendship, and the opportunity to grapple with tough topics. No experience necessary! Join at any time. No reservations necessary.

Temple Beth El Book Club
Fourth Sundays of each month
11:00 am – 12:30 pm at Temple Beth El

Book Club is back! Mark your calendars for the fourth Sunday of each month, beginning in October 2018 and continuing through May 2019. Sessions will be led by Temple Beth El clergy, staff, and lay leaders. Book titles are listed below:

- Washing the Dead, by Michelle Brafman (October 28, 2018)
- Catch The Jew, by Tuvia Tenebom (November 25, 2018)
- Protective Custody: Prisoner 34042 – A Holocaust Survivor Memoir, by Dr. Susan Cernyak-Spatz (December 23, 2018)
- Casting Lots, by Sarah Silverman (January 27, 2019)
- The Orchard, by Yochi Brandes (February 24, 2019)
- The Choice, Dr. Edith Eva Eger (March 24, 2019)
- Henna House, by Nomi Eve (April 28, 2019)
- Letter to my Palestinian Neighbor, by Yossi Klein Halevi (May 26, 2019)

If you are interested in helping facilitate a session, please reach out to Liz Cicirello, Lead Administrative Assistant, ecicirello@templebethel.org.

SPICE Senior Programs of Interest, Concern, and Engagement

The mission of SPICE is to enhance the quality of life of affiliated and non-affiliated Jewish seniors by providing religious, cultural, educational, or social programs of interest and concern.

Join us for these clergy-led programs from 11:00 am to 12:00 pm. Lunch is at noon followed by a guest speaker presentation from 12:45 pm to 1:45 pm. We look forward to your attendance, enjoyment, and participation!

Registration and Fee for each program

October 15, 2018 Rabbi Knight, "What is Your Legacy?" and Michael Marsicano, Visionary President and CEO, Foundation for the Carolinas, "Philanthropic Activities and the Charlotte Theatre Office Project"

November 5, 2018 Rabbi Klass and members of our community, "Exploring Implicit Bias"

November 19, 2018 Chef Alyssa and a Thanksgiving meal prepared by Jered of Izzy's Catering

Save The Date

COMMUNITY WIDE FREE EVENT

Global Day of Jewish Learning is a worldwide cultural event to celebrate our shared heritage. This year's theme: What are the journeys that matter most to us? From ancient adventures to the modern diaspora, spiritual to physical, experience the journeys of individuals and the Jewish people.

- ▶ Jewish adult educational seminars
- ▶ PJ Library
- ▶ Complimentary food and refreshments
- ▶ Free babysitting (must register in advance)

Sunday,
November 11
9:30am – 1pm

Shalom Park
All events are free
More information to follow

This program is supported by a JFGC Impact & Innovation Grant.

In partnership with numerous Charlotte Jewish organizations.

Wednesday, October 24, 2018, 6:00 pm - 9:00 pm Location TBA

Participation in community-wide On the Table conversation about the legacy of segregation and its continued impact. Sponsored by the Knight Foundation and the Foundation for the Carolinas.

Sunday, December 9, 2018, 2:00 pm - 3:30 pm at Temple Beth El

Introduce the concept of implicit bias and understand how our unconscious tendencies cause us to categorize, generalize, stereotype, and discriminate. Learn methods to minimize adverse impacts of implicit biases.

Three programs in 2019 will explore how race influences specific issues and policies:

- Pre-K – 12 Education - January 16, 2019, 7:00 pm – 8:30 pm at Temple Beth El
- Affordable Housing/Residential Segregation – February 3, 2019, 2:00 pm – 3:30 pm at Temple Beth El
- Criminal Justice System – February 27, 2019 at Temple Beth El

The Many Meanings of Israel with Temple Beth El's Rabbi Emerita, Rabbi Judy Schindler, Sklut Professor of Jewish Studies

3 Wednesday evenings,

October 17, 2018, November 14, 2018, December 5, 2018

7:00 pm - 8:30 pm at Temple Beth El

Registration, Free

The term "Israel" has many meanings. It can reflect the people of Israel from Biblical times until today - wherever they have lived around the globe. The name "Israel" can identify the ancient holy land for which Diaspora Jews throughout the millennia have longed or it can encompass the modern Jewish State. Likewise the word "Zionism" has multiple meanings from Political Zionism to Religious Zionism to Reform Zionism.

Join Rabbi Judy Schindler as we explore the meaning of the people, land, and dream of Israel, 70 years after the founding of the modern-state.

- Session One - Am Yisrael – Jewish Peoplehood (October 17, 2018)
- Session Two - Medinat Yisrael - What's Jewish About a Jewish State? (November 14, 2018)
- Session Three - The Dream of Israel - Then and Now – Exploring the Landscape of Modern Zionism (December 5, 2018)

December 3, 2018 Rabbi Ana Bonnheim, "V'shinatem l'vanecha: And You Shall Teach Your Children Where Does Judaism's Emphasis on Education Come From? What Are Our Tradition's Principles of Education? Is It Only for Children? And Whose Children?" and Sterling Elementary School Principal Dr. Emily Miles - "The Story of Sterling: Aiming High to Improve School Performance"

December 17, 2018 Cantor Mary Rebecca Thomas - "Shirei B'tzibbur: The Power of the Congregational Voice" and Paul Anderson, Charlotte Concerts - "The Power of Musical Connections: Tips on Enjoying Classical Music and How Participation Builds Community"

More SPICE Program Dates:

January 7, 2019	March 4, 2019	May 6, 2019
January 23, 2019	March 18, 2019	May 20, 2019
February 4, 2019	April 1, 2019	June 3, 2019
February 20, 2019	April 22, 2019 (Seder)	June 17, 2019

Questions of Faith with Rabbi Asher Knight
Congregational Shabbat Saturdays
9:00 am – 10:15 am at Temple Beth El

Progressive faith requires us to consider questions that challenge us. We live in an age of radical polarization, rising religious fundamentalism, and passionate atheism. Join Rabbi Knight once a month on Shabbat morning, as we explore Jewish tradition and contemporary thought on questions raised by the meeting of faith, reason, history, and our lived modern experience. Each session will be followed by brunch (please RSVP for brunch) and our Congregational Shabbat Service.

- Question of History: Where is God in the workings of the world? (November 17, 2018)
- Question of Conviction: Do I have to believe in God to be a good Jew? (December 8, 2018)
- Question of Theodicy: Why does God allow for suffering? (February 23, 2019)
- Question of Faith and Questioning: What if I am ambivalent? (March 9, 2019)
- Question of Responsibility: For whom are we responsible? (April 13, 2019)
- Question of Practice: What does it mean to live with our faith? (May 11, 2019)

Sage: Seeking Jewish Wisdom with Rabbi Asher Knight

7 Sessions (5 Mondays, 2 Wednesdays)

11:00 am – 12:30 pm at Temple Beth El

Registration and Fee

Jewish identity is complex. For centuries, Jewish identity has largely been shaped by the experience of being a minority struggling to protect our heritage from assimilation. But traditional Jewish practices such as attending synagogue, fasting on Yom Kippur, and affiliating with Jewish institutions or identifying with Israel do not necessarily speak to today's Jews. This year's Sage will explore the ideas of Jewish identity that have shaped our people and we will consider how our ideas of Jewish identity will affect our people's future.

- 1) Session 1: Biology or Covenant – Why are we a people? (October 22, 2018)
- 2) Session 2: The Stories We Tell Ourselves – The narratives that shape our identity (November 26, 2018)
- 3) Session 3: Jewish Time – The seasons and cycles of our lives (January 30, 2019)
- 4) Session 4: Ritual and Religion - What is a "Religious Jew"? (February 25, 2019)
- 5) Session 5: American Jew or Jewish American - What is an American Jew? (March 25, 2019)
- 6) Session 6: Israeli Jewish Identity – Understanding Israelis through Literature (April 15, 2019)
- 7) Session 7: The "Chosen People" – The Struggle between Exceptionalism and Otherness (May 22, 2019)

The Art of Chanting the Torah with Cantor Mary Rebecca Thomas

4 Saturday Mornings, October 6, 13, 20, 27, 2018

9:00 am – 10:00 am at Temple Beth El

Registration, Free

Learn the ancient system of ta'amei hamikra with Cantor Thomas. Torah trope is a system of musical grammar that brings meaning, structure, and beauty to the way that we read and chant from our Torah each week. This course is open to teens and adults with Hebrew reading proficiency. Required text, The Art of Torah Cantillation by Cantors Marshall Portnoy and Josee Wolff, will be available for purchase at Discovered Traditions Gift Shop.

Discover the Art of Jewish Prayer with Cantor Mary Rebecca Thomas

3 Monday Evenings

7:00 pm - 8:30 pm at Temple Beth El

Registration, Free

This is a unique opportunity to learn with Cantor Thomas as we explore the underlying structure of Jewish worship and deepen our understanding of how individual prayers can create a greater narrative for our spiritual lives. We will learn using study, song, meditation, and conversation to explore God and our liturgy in new ways. Through the course, we will consider the cultivation of personal prayer and meditation practices that can be used in daily life.

- There is a Plan: The Structure of the Service (March 11, 2019)
- Why do we Gather? Public and Private Prayer (March 18, 2019)
- Love God: The Theologies of the Prayer Book (March 25, 2019)

TOWN HALL: LARGE COMMUNITY-WIDE LEARNING OPPORTUNITIES

- TBE Bends Toward Justice
- The Many Meanings of Israel
- Global Day of Jewish Learning
- Comparative Religion
- Sinai Scoop: Celebrating Women's Voices

TBE Bends Toward Justice

Judaism's prophetic tradition compels us to seek justice and alleviate the blights of society. The #TBERaceandJustice Learning Series invites our congregation to grapple with the difficult and uncomfortable issue of racism by exploring its historical roots and its effects in our own time. The series will explore government policies, some of which advanced rights for people of color, but many of which benefited white people while disadvantaging others, whether by design or unintentionally. With a deeper understanding of the role of race, we will be better prepared to work effectively for a just Charlotte.

#TBERaceandJustice Learning Series

Wednesday, October 10, 2018

7:00 pm – 8:30 pm at Temple Beth El

Historical overview of race relations in Charlotte with Dr. Willie Griffin, staff historian at Levine Museum of the New South. Examination of causes for today's lack of economic and social mobility. Introduction of TBE's work for racial justice and equity.