

FALL 2023 EVENTS

Wednesday, October 4 at 12:00pm

Lunch in the Sukkah! A back-to-SPICE luncheon with bagels, lox, chicken/tuna/egg salad, and more! Catch up with old friends and make new ones.

Wednesday, October 18 at 11:00am

Charlotte District Attorney Spencer Merriweather on Post-Pandemic Crime in Charlotte. Rabbi Lexi Erdheim and Nicole Sidman will join the discussion. Lunch features salmon and rice.

Wednesday, November 1 at 11:00am

Rabbi Stuart Gershon on The Past and Future of Reform Judaism. Lunch includes stuffed cabbage, kasha, and bow ties.

Friday, November 10 at 6:00pm

SPICE's Potluck Dinner to Benefit Sterling Elementary. Dinner includes chicken marsala and your special dishes.

Wednesday, November 15 at 11:00am

Rabbi Asher Knight on Exploring Herzl's Vision - The Jewish Question and Planting the Seeds of a State and Stefan Pienkny on the 50th Anniversary of the Yom Kippur War and its legacy today. Deli lunch with pastrami, corned beef, and turkey.

Wednesday, December 6 at 11:00am

Join Cantor Mary Rebecca Thomas as we explore Light and Hope in Sound and Story, followed by a traditional Chanukah luncheon featuring chicken, latkes, and jelly doughnuts.

Wednesday, December 20 at 11:00am

Cantor Jessica Roskin on Nobody Does it Better: Jewish Musicians Who Influenced Pop Culture and Allan Margolies on Melody in Search of an Anthem: Hatikvah (a film), followed by fried chicken and fixins

Wednesday, January 17 at 11:00am

Dr. Adrian Bird, Chaplain of Queens University of Charlotte on Building Bridges, Not Walls: Stories Around the Interfaith Campfire. Greek lunch including Greek salad, spanakopita, and chicken.