

SPRING 2024 EVENTS

Wednesday, February 7 at 11:00am - TBE Congregant John R. Dabels presents "A Down-to-Earth Lesson About Artificial Intelligence". Rabbi Beth Nichols will speak on "The Story of the Golem and Applying Jewish Values to AI. Lunch: turkey chili, potato kugel, roasted vegetables and chocolate cake.

Wednesday, February 21 at 11:00am - Dr. David Goldfield presents "Ella May - Mother, Minstrel, Martyr: Tragedy and Textiles in Gastonia, 1929." Rabbi Lexi Erdheim will speak on "A History of the Workmen's Circle: A Case Study in the Jewish Labor Movement". Lunch: teriyaki chicken, rice noodles, green beans, and egg custard.

Wednesday, March 7 at 11:00am - Christopher James Lees, Resident Conductor of the CSO presents "The Charlotte Symphony Orchestra: The Stories and Impacts of Music in our Community." Cantor Jessica Roskin will speak on "A History of the Cantorate: It's Not What You Think." Lunch: a baked potato bar, salad, fruit and cookies.

Wednesday, March 20 at 11:00am - Dr. Bob Whalen, Professor Emerita at Queens University of Charlotte presents, "Back to the Future: What Might Tomorrow Look Like?" Rabbi Beth Nichols hosts "Antisemitism Q&A with Rabbi Nichols". Lunch: lemon garlic cod, rice pilaf, asparagus, fruit, and brownies.

Wednesday, April 3 at 11:00am - Dr. James Tabor presents, "New Archeology Discoveries in Jerusalem and How They Shape What We Know." Rabbi Knight will speak on "Jerusalem Through the Ages: From Ancient Roots to Future Visions". Lunch: a classic deli lunch with corned beef and pastrami.

Wednesday, April 17 at 12:00pm - Join us for a Passover Picnic! Come and catch up with SPICE friends and have a delicious lunch with a Passover inspired menu. We will be dining outside (weather permitting).

Wednesday, May 1 at 11:00am - Charlotte Rouchouze presents, "Finding Your Inner Artist." Rabbi Knight will speak on "Divine Design or Idolatry: Artistic Creativity in Jewish Life." Lunch: lasagna, tossed salad, garlic bread, and Italian desserts.

Friday, May 10 at 6:00pm - SPICE's Potluck Dinner to Benefit Sterling Elementary. Dinner includes brisket and your special dishes.

Wednesday, May 15 - SPICE OUT! A visit with your SPICE friends to tour The Harvey B. Gantt Center for African-American Arts.

Wednesday, June 5 at 11:00am - Cantor Mary Rebecca Thomas joins SPICE to sing Broadway favorites! Lunch: salad bar, fruit, and dessert.